When the designated broker applicant and the partnership have complied with all requirements of the license law, the Commission shall issue a license to the partnership, which shall bear the name of the appointed partner as the designated broker of the partnership. (Because of rising costs associated with issuing a refund, it is the policy of the Idaho Real Estate Commission (IREC) to refund overpayments of under $25 only if requested in writing within 30 days of IREC receipt of the overpayment. Overpayments of $25 or more will be automatically refunded to the licensee. There will be a $20 fee assessed for each check returned to IREC for insufficient funds.)

6. ERRORS & OMISSIONS INSURANCE: Idaho Law requires that actively licensed business entities obtain and maintain Real Estate Errors & Omissions (E&O) Insurance as a precondition to licensure, and that no entity may hold an active real estate license without insurance. Failure to obtain and maintain insurance will result in the immediate inactivation of the license, and will also subject the designated broker to disciplinary action, which could include suspension or revocation of the license and imposition of a fine. Applicants are required to obtain a Certificate of Insurance, signed by an authorized agent or employee of the insurance provider, which must be made available for inspection upon request by the Commission.
